"I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. If anyone does not abide in me he is thrown away like a branch and withers; and the branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you."

John 15: 5-7

Welcome to our worship service. We are honored that you have joined us, and we hope that your time spent with us is spiritually uplifting. If you are visiting, please fill out a visitor's card located on the back of the pew in front of you and place in the collection basket in the foyer so that we will have a record of your visit. We hope to see you again soon.

Meeting Minutes from congregational meeting

1. Elders nominated Kavin Rance and Wesley Marshall for the position of deacon. If anyone has any concerns about this please see an elder.
2. We will continue to pay for church camp and will also be donating funds to the camp.
3. We will continue to support LTC and the kids will be going to the convention.
4. We will continue to support the same missions that we have been supporting in the past.

Jesus' Concern For Others

Paul's words in Philippians 2:4 reflect the life and teaching of Jesus: "Let each of you look out not only for his own interests, but also for the interests of others." If you ignore your own interests, you will have no means to help others; but focusing entirely on self eliminates any attention to anyone else. Jesus and the disciples ate, drank, and slept like all people. They had a treasury to supply day-to-day needs (John 13:29). But Jesus was also others-oriented. Most things He did as recorded in the New Testament were for the benefit of others. Think of the incarnation. An old favorite hymn asks, "Why did My Savior come to earth?" Indeed, why would He leave the glory of Heaven, where He was loved and adored, to come to this sinful world where He knew rejection, hatred, torture, and death awaited Him? Let our Lord Himself answer: "The Son of Man has come to seek and to save that which was lost" (Luke 19:10). "For the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many" (Mark 10:45). Paul summarized it this way: "For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though He was rich, yet for your sakes He became poor, that you though His poverty might become rich" (2 Corinthians 8:9). Not for His own benefit, but for ours He, being eternal Deity, condescended to take upon Himself human flesh. He humbly served, obeying the Father's will, even to the point of the death of the cross where He took our sins upon Himself and paid the atonement price. Let there be no doubt – Jesus cared for others! Joe Slater

Worship service will be live streamed every Sunday morning at 10:30
