This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have good success.

Joshua 1: 8-9

Welcome to our worship service. We are honored that you have joined us, and we hope that your time spent with us is spiritually uplifting. If you are visiting, please fill out a visitor's card located on the back of the pew in front of you and place in the collection basket in the foyer so that we will have a record of your visit. We hope to see you again soon.

Looking for Loopholes

W.C. Fields (1880-1946) was one of the most popular entertainers of the Vaudeville era. While Fields could make audiences roar with laughter, he certainly was not a Christian and made no pretense of his disdain for the Bible. Thus, it came as a great shock when one of Fields' friends, visiting him in the hospital near the end of his life, found him reading the Bible. When the friend asked what he was doing, Fields, ever the comedian, replied: "Just looking for loopholes!"

Friends, one day we will all stand before the judgment seat of Christ. "For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that each one may receive the things done in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad" (2 Corinthians 5:10). On that great day, we will be judged by the word of God. Jesus Christ said, "He who rejects Me, and does not receive My words, has that which judges him – the word that I have spoken will judge him in the last day" (John 12:48).

God's law, unlike man's has no loopholes. No lawyer will be able to fool the Judge of all men, or be able to negotiate a plea bargain. Hebrews 9:27 reminds us, ". . . It is appointed for men to die once, but after this the judgment . . ."

If Judgment Day were today, where would you dwell eternally – in Heaven, or Hell? --Travis L. Quetermous (Thayer, MO)

Worship service will be live streamed every Sunday morning at 10:30
