And without faith it is impossible to please him, for whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him.

Hebrews 11:6

Welcome to our worship service. We are honored that you have joined us, and we hope that your time spent with us is spiritually uplifting. If you are visiting, please fill out a visitor's card located on the back of the pew in front of you and place in the collection basket in the foyer so that we will have a record of your visit. We hope to see you again soon.

Anger #2

God's anger is always righteous; ours seldom is. In most cases, human anger stems from selfishness of some sort (envy, pride, etc.). Honestly evaluating "why" we are angry can help us set it aside.

Another good question is, "What fruit comes from your anger?" Cain became angry when God rejected his offering while accepting Abel's; that anger led him to murder his own brother! In Ephesus the wrath of the Diana-worshippers resulted in a two-hour-long riot that threatened the safety of the Christians there. Jesus' enemies' anger produced multiple attempts to kill Him, the last of which succeeded. How can we not see the destructive nature of anger from these examples? Remember, "anger is only one letter short of danger!"

You can also use this question to determine whether your anger is justified: "How quickly are you angry?" Wise Solomon wrote, "He who is quick-tempered acts foolishly" (Proverbs 14:17). Here he again: "Do not hasten in your spirit to be angry, for anger rests in the bosom of fools" (Ecclesiastes 7:9). By contrast, "The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in mercy" (Psalm 103:8). Hot-headedness is no laughing matter! It demonstrates a lack of maturity and indicates you do not have the "fruit of the Spirit," one manifestation of which is self-control.

Finally, ask yourself, "How long do you remain angry?" Paul wrote, "Do not let the sun go down on your wrath" (Ephesians 4:26). Holding a grudge does nothing productive but demonstrates a resentful spirit unlike the patience and longsuffering of God. Why are you angry? What fruit comes from your anger? How quickly are you angry? How long do you remain angry? -Joe Slater

Worship service will be live streamed live every Sunday morning at 10:30 on <https://www.facebook.com/Columbianachurchofchrist/> and on the website www.columbianachurchofchrist.org.
