On March 19 a preacher prospect, Trevor Dees, will be in for the weekend and teaching our morning bible class and sermon. We will also have our fellowship meal that day so that we can all have a chance to meet and get to know him!

We are once again planning to have our wild game dinner. Mark your calendars for Saturday, April 29th at 6:00 here at the building! We hope everyone can make it!!

One Step At A Time

“How much farther?” I asked as Mom and I trudged up the long brick road hill carrying heavy sacks of groceries. I shifted the bag to my other arm so I could wipe off the sweat trickling down my face.

I knew we had another two miles to walk, and I knew what she would say. “Just keep putting one foot in front of the other. We’ll make it.” She was right. In spite of our weariness, in spite of the stings of sweat bees, and in spite of the load that seemed to grow heavier with each step, we would make it. Her advice has stayed with me through my life.

Why do I keep going, no matter what troubles and sorrows confront me? Because Jesus has made me His own. His love for me renews my love for Him and keeps me going. His promise of having a place to call my own, more beautiful than any house here, spurs me onward.

As I look back, memories haunt me. But I know I must forget what lies behind and strain forward to what lies ahead, and I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus (Philippians 3:13- 14).

I will never give up. I will not let Satan have his way with me. With God’s help, I will keep marching. One day at a time, each step of life’s journey will lead me to my home in heaven. That is where I want to be, with my Lord and Savior who died for me and made me His own. --Donna Wittlif (Denver, CO)

Worship service will be live streamed live every Sunday morning at 10:30 on <https://www.facebook.com/Columbianachurchofchrist/> and on the website www.columbianachurchofchrist.org.
