We Are Not Yet Home

“And Moses took the bones of Joseph with him, for he had placed the children of Israel under solemn oath, saying, ‘God will surely visit you, and you shall carry my bones from here with you’” (Exodus 13:19).

Joseph had enjoyed a distinguished career in Egypt. Next to Pharaoh, he had held the highest position in that country. Yet those long years of faithful service never made him feel he really belonged to Egypt. Before he died, he made his people swear to take his mortal remains back to the land God had promised to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

The Lord expects His people to be faithful in their earthly positions and responsibilities. By so doing, they honor Christ and His church. They are never to become so attached to this world that they prefer it to the land of promise. Our home is not here, but in heaven. Here we are pilgrims and sojourners on our way to a better place (1 Peter 2:11)

Peter thus wrote: “Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to His abundant mercy has begotten us again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled, and that does not fade away, reserved in heaven for you” (1 Peter 1:3- 4).
