Notice the Caring People

“Did not Moses give you the law, yet none of you keeps the law? Why do you seek to kill Me” (John 7:19).

We would like to think that we don't have an enemy in the world; but as Jesus came to teach and save the lost He encountered a host of enemies! The Jews were constantly searching for Him, wanting to kill Him; but He continued loving. He must have felt loneliness when even his brothers didn't believe in Him.

Seeing those who opposed Jesus makes us want to stand up for good anywhere we see it. Today, take time to notice anyone who is caring.

Recently I was struggling with my groceries. I felt the cart being guided by stronger hands and I looked up to see a friendly face. The takeout lady was happy to help me to the car. My next stop was the gas station. As I began to pump my gas a young lady ran to help me. The biggest surprise was when I pulled out into traffic; someone actually held back and allowed me to move into the proper lane. I silently said, “Thank You, Lord, for the spark of Your love in others.”

Notice the caring people in this world and turn to help someone on your way. --Jewell Clarkston (via Power For Today)

Just a reminder that this coming Saturday is daylight savings and you will need to move your clocks ahead one hour!!
