Potter Children's Home is once again having their commodities outreach. They are requesting the following items:

The items need to be placed on the table in the foyer outside the fellowship hall by May 5.

What is it Worth to You?

A man in a fancy restaurant started to choke on a bone. A doctor rushed over, identified himself as a doctor, and reassured the man that he was going to be all right. He performed the Heimlich maneuver and the bone popped out.

As the man's breath and voice returned, he said, "I'm ever so grateful, doctor; how can I ever repay you?" The doctor smiled and said, "I'll settle for one-tenth of what you were willing to pay while you were choking."

It's true, isn't it, that when you're facing a crisis (especially a life-threatening crisis), you would give everything you have to get through it. Money is no object!

We do the same thing on a spiritual level. How many times have you faced hardship and prayed, "Lord, if you'll just see me through this, I'll serve you faithfully the rest of my life!" or something similar? But what happens when the crisis passes? Those feelings of urgency about serving God pass as well. If we could commit ourselves to doing one-tenth of what we're willing to do in those moments, most of us would ascend to a new level of commitment. Paul wrote, "For to me, to live is Christ, and to die is gain." (Philippians 1:21)
