"The eye is the lamp of the body; so then, if your eye is clear, your whole body will be full of light. But if your eye is bad, your whole body will be full of darkness. So if the light that is in you is darkness, how great is the darkness!"

Matthew 6:22-23

Welcome to our worship service. We are honored that you have joined us, and we hope that your time spent with us is spiritually uplifting. If you are visiting, please fill out a visitor's card located on the back of the pew in front of you and place in the collection basket in the foyer so that we will have a record of your visit. We hope to see you again soon.

A group from Freed Hardeman will be coming into town to help Tri County church. On Sunday October 6th we will be having a Sunday evening devotional followed by finger foods at 6pm. They will also be joining us on October 9th for soup supper and Wednesday night bible study. On October 11th we will be having a lock in for 7th-12th graders starting at 7:00pm. On October 12th everyone must be picked up by 7:30am. That same day we will be having men's breakfast at 8:30am and we would like our ladies to take the ladies coming from Freed to Dutch Haus for breakfast, they will be leaving town after. We will also need help coordinating meals for them while they are in town. For any more information or details, please see one of the elders.

On October 19th we are planning to take the teens to Maze Craze, all that are wanting to come are welcome. Please see Wesley for more information.

How Can I Know that I Am Saved – Gary C. Hampton

The greatest question anyone can ask is, "How can I know that I am saved?" The answer either points toward a future in Heaven with God or in Hell separated eternally from God (Matthew 25:34, 46; 2 Thessalonians 1:7-9). We need to realize salvation comes in three movements. Saul of Tarsus learned from Ananias how he could be saved from his past sins. He asked him, "And now why are you waiting? Arise and be baptized, and wash away your sins, calling on the name of the Lord" (Acts 22:16 NKJV). The individual set free from his past sins can remain in a saved condition from day to day (1 John 1:7, 9). The ultimate salvation, though, is in Heaven (Romans 13:11). Each must be aware that there are unreliable ways of assurance regarding salvation. Feelings or conscience is not reliable. Though Paul persecuted the church, he told the counsel, "...Men and brethren, I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day" (Acts 23:1; 26:9). Sadly, one cannot rely on the assurance of a preacher. Apollos was unintentionally wrong before being taught by Aquila and Priscilla (Acts 18:24-28). In addition, Paul warned about those who intentionally deceive (Romans 16:17-18). Only God can give you or me true assurance of salvation. God's inspired apostle to the Gentiles proclaimed there is no condemnation to those in Christ (Romans 8:1-2). Each must be baptized into Christ (Galatians 3:26-27). Being in Christ is an ongoing part of life (Romans 8:5-6). Living the life God wants from us requires us to have the Word of God continually abiding in us. John told his children in the faith that as long as the Faith – the Word of God – abided in them that they would continue to abide in the Father and the Son, and They would abide in them (1 John 2:24; 3:24). It is possible to know I have been saved from my sins in the past, remain saved in the present and you will be saved in eternity.

Worship service will be live streamed live every Sunday morning at 10:30 on <https://www.facebook.com/Columbianachurchofchrist/> and on the website www.columbianachurchofchrist.org.
