We are looking for volunteers to support the celebration of marriage evening. We need a photographer to take photos of our couples. We need babysitters (not in the church building). We need a master of ceremonies for the evening. If you can help with these please see Dick Mason. Also married couples please sign up to let us know if you are going to attend, thank you!

Do you want to build a cookbook?

We will be creating a church cookbook just for fun. If you have recipes you would like to include, please email to Cindy Pacella at ccpacella@gmail.com or put a copy in Pacella's church mailbox. Be sure to include your name and any back-story you think would be interesting. It could be favorite potluck recipes, recipes you've gotten from former church members, or maybe your grandma's best brownies. Special category: Crockpot recipes for busy families. Let's see what we can share with each other.

What is the difference between a priest and a prophet? In college I heard someone put it this way: The duty of the prophet was to represent God to the people, whereas the priest represented the people to God. Prophets were sent to preach repentance, but priests were continuously serving in the Tabernacle and in the Temple. It was the priest who administered the sacrifices on behalf of the people. The priest, then, and especially the high priest, was a mediator to God for the people. As Christ, this is another one of the major roles Jesus came to fill. He came to serve as our Mediator (1 Timothy 2:5; Hebrews 8:6; 9:15; 12:24) and our High Priest (Hebrews 2:17; 4:14-15; 5:10; 6:20; 9:11). However, instead of offering sacrifices on a daily or on a yearly basis, He offered Himself once for all (Hebrews 7:27), having entered the Holy Place once for all. Jesus Christ obtained eternal redemption (Hebrews 9:12). As Christ, Jesus is the perfect and eternal High Priest.
