Satan Comes Lurking

In the book of Job, God asked Satan where he had been. He told God, "From going to and fro on the earth, and from walking back and forth on it" (Job 1:7; 2:2 NKJV). Peter indicated Satan walks "about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour" (1 Peter 5:8). Have you seen evidence that Satan has ceased his search for souls? The world seems to be filled with evidence that Satan still prowls about the earth. We, as Christians, ought to be on guard so we are not tricked by his devices. Satan has more experience deceiving us than we do at overcoming temptation. The devil is not fearful; rather, he is cunning, brave and deceptive. He uses any means at his disposal to conceal his actions as he stalks his prey. Since he is a capable adversary, what can we do to evade him? Peter instructed, "Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour. Resist him, steadfast in the faith, knowing that the same sufferings are experienced by your brotherhood in the world" (1 Peter 5:8-9). Notice the instruction:

1. Be sober – Think clearly,
2. Be vigilant – Self-controlled,
3. Resist – Withstand or to oppose,
4. Steadfast – Be established, and
5. Understand you are not the only one Satan is attacking.

In order to be found faithful, we must fight against the devil as he seeks our destruction. Paul reminded the Ephesian brethren that they were in a spiritual battle. Today, we fight that same battle, and we will continue to fight it until Jesus' return. Let us be established in our faith and unwilling to yield to Satan!
